Description

An elegant 18th century French kingwood writing table; the parquetry top cross-banded with kingwood above a single drawer, standing on inlaid square tapering legs with brass mouldings and gilded bronze feet. The top slides back and the oak-lined writing drawer pulls out and is fitted with a tooled leather writing surface that folds back to form a book rest, with fitted ink-wells. The table is free-standing with parquetry panels on all sides and would serve well as an end-table. French, circa 1790. John Beazor Antiques is a family firm, established in 1875 and based in Cambridge since 1940. We are a traditional antiques shop, but very much in the 21st century. We deal in 18th and early 19th century furniture, barometers and clocks. We choose our stock for its originality and for the quality of its colour, patination and design. We are members of the BADA. We do not exhibit at fairs preferring to deal from our Cambridge shop where – in normal times – we hold an Open Weekend every November.
