Description

This handsome and heavy weight tankard is a quality example made to a plain Georgian gun barrel design with multiple ring decorations around the rim and base which are both finished with a simple rolled edge. The elegantly shaped handle is of a good size and easily fits into the hand. The interior has its original gilt finish which is bright with some small signs of wear and use. Hallmarked for London, 1922 – 3. In good condition Weight 353 grams
