Description

Edwardian satinwood waterfall bookcase This extraordinary Edwardian satinwood waterfall bookcase is probably the best on the market. As this bookcase is of the finest quality it could only have been made by Edwards and Roberts or Waring and Gillow, as they were producing such wonderful items during this period (circa 1910) This serpentine waterfall bookcase gives you a selection of different shelf depths, added to that you have extra storage with a double cupboard at the base. It is made of the best quality satinwood with wonderful, figured satinwood in panels on the side and finishing with a beautiful pineapple finial to each end. You have a unique opportunity to own this bookcase, a chance that is unlikely to come up again. Imagine how wonderful this will look in your home and the pleasure it is sure to give you, as well as the use you can get with it storing your prized books.
