Description

A charming and quite unusual Victorian period chest of drawers in Mahogany. This was made in England & it dates from around 1880-1890's period. The quality is amazing, with solid mahogany construction throughout. This is quite small and compact, it's a very practical and useful size. There are fine quality hand cut dovetailed joints in the drawers, which are graduated in depth & all have locks. The original naturally aged brass handles are fine quality. This chest of drawers has a lovely patina & is full of character. We have recently had this re-polished, it is in excellent condition for its age.
