Description

Rare Art Deco glass decanter set dating to the 1930s and originating from the Czech Republic. This set features a large impressive decanter and stopper with three matching shot glasses. Unfortunately one glass arrived to us with a hairline crack, however it still displays beautifully and is semi hidden as it's under some gilding. We have reflected this in the pricing. Lovely colouring with the tinted pale blue glass and gold gilding overlay which has etched detailing. A great set and one you're not likely to come across again anytime soon. Please note the tray is not part of this sale. FREE UK MAINLAND DELIVERY
