Description

An interesting and pretty pair of Edwardian silver napkin rings each with hallmarks for Birmingham 1904 and makers mark for John Thompson & Sons. Each central band, between two strong outer rims, is pierced with an Etruscan style foliate design resembling five acanthus leaves. The leaves in each band are cut and chased, leaving one leaf in each band plain (for engraved initials). No initials have been added on this pair. The pair come in a box.
