Description

A late 19th century English oak artist's easel by C Roberson* & Co, 99 Long Acre, London. Having a concealed storage drawer with a drop down cover, with full height and angle adjustment. The pine top can be fixed flat so it can also be used as a small table. Very good quality with original finish and condition throughout. English. Circa 1860 * The firm of Roberson and Co relocated from 51 to 99 Long Acre in 1853, under the ownership of Charles Roberson; establishing his company as one of the major firms of artists' suppliers. Top: 25 1/2" (65cm) wide x 20" (51cm) deep, 32" (81cm) high to a max height of 47" or 119.5cm John Beazor Antiques is a family firm, established in 1875 and based in Cambridge since 1940. We are a traditional antiques shop, but very much in the 21st century. We deal in 18th and early 19th century furniture, barometers and clocks. We choose our stock for its originality and for the quality of its colour, patination and design. We are members of the BADA. We do not exhibit at fairs preferring to deal from our Cambridge shop where – in normal times – we hold an Open Weekend every November.
