Description

A fine Epstein Art Deco compact sideboard with curved edges and a fluted curved section to the two central doors. The mirror like finish of the top is protected by glass. Circular ivory handles to each of the four doors compliment the colour of the maple sideboard. The two side cupboards each with three shelves and the central cupboard, with five pull out drawers, with the top drawer lined in green baize divided into three sections. The doors with working locks and keys. All our furniture is professionally polished and restored where necessary. A matching dining room table and chairs and a serving trolley are also currently available. Height: 96cm Width: 150.5cm Depth of ends: 59cm Depth of centre: 50cm In the Shoreditch area of the East End of London during the late 19th century, Jewish cabinet maker emigres from the Baltic states formed a cabinet making colony. One of these was Morris Epstein and later his six sons. In 1929 two of his sons, Harry, the designer and Lou, the cabinet maker formed H&L Epstein furniture designers and manufacturers to go onto create some of the best British Art Deco furniture, both in design and quality. Fifteen highly skilled craftsmen w...
