Description

Antique silver half hunter pocket watch, examined by Dent. The watch has a high grade stem-winding movement which is working nicely. Dent bought in watches / movements from high end manufacturers such as Badollet and Vacheron Constantin. They would then be examined to confirm that they met their high standards, basically a guarantee of quality for retail purposes. The movement is protected by an inner hinged cover inscribed with the wording, 'Examined by Dent, 61 Strand and 4 Royal Exchange, London'. Dent was registered at these addresses in 1886. Dent's high standards earned the company a Royal Warrant as the official watch and clockmaker to Her Majesty Queen Victoria and HRH Albert Prince of Wales in 1841, a warrant that was subsequently renewed through to George V's reign. Russian emperors Tsar Alexander III and Tsar Nicolas II, and the Japanese Emperor Meiji also issued Dent with Royal Warrants. This particular watch measures 47mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is 935 silver and there are Continental marks inside all three covers. The case has some surface marking, including some fairly light scratching by number 12 on the front...
