Description

A charming small 18th century antique oak side table. The antique oak side table has a rectangular shaped oak plank top and a single fitted drawer with a decorative Georgian design brass handle. The oak side table is raised on four tapering legs with a shaped apron below the drawer. A neat, well-presented 18th century oak side table with a wonderful rich colour throughout. Item Ref; M-2888 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 70cm / Width – 65cm / Depth – 44.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including some age-related marks and staining to the top (pictured). The antique oak side table remains structurally solid and sound with the drawer running well. There has been an old historic repair to the back leg (pictured). The leg remains solid, and the repair does not affect the integrity of the table. A rather charming example. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item.
