Description

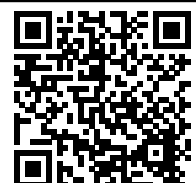

A high quality amboyna and beech wine table with green tooled leather top. This unusual table stands on a turned, knoped and fluted japanned pedestal, the decorative quatrefoil base terminates with stepped, scroll feet. The condition is very good, the tooled leather top is in good condition and the table stands evenly and securely. This table is typical of the work of James Lamb of Manchester and used as either a wine or lamp table, would be an important addition to any room. c. 1880 Diameter: 15" 38 cm Height: 27.5" 70 cm
