Description

Rare, early Baluchis like this one are few and far between and particularly in such very good condition. Made around 1860 in Khorassan Province, north-eastern Persia, a similar example can be seen in the V & A collection, but not as early as this one! The intense indigo-blue field depicts a serrated leaf adjoining flower-heads - possibly nectar-blossom - and the continuous vine main border symbolises the eternal cycle of life. This fabulous Baluch is in excellent condition with a few expertly-done repairs and retains its long chevron skirts at each end. This rug is among the best of nineteenth century Khorassan Baluch rugs and is highly collectible. Size: 2.50m x 1.30m (8' 3" x 4' 3").

Internal Ref: BM/Baluch
