Description

For your consideration is this very charming and totally authentic early 1930's Art Deco Flapper girl hat pin holder. Part of the half doll, pin cushion doll family this beautiful figure is an absolute delight and quite a rarity. Wonderful colouring to her delicately painted facial features and blushed cheeks. She sits on a rock with open holes to house hat pins. In her hand is a hole to take an umbrella, these are easily sourced and I can provide one if you would like it, please see through the pictures provided as to what we have available. She's in great condition and free from any damage to include restoration old or new, cracks, hairlines, chips etc. Originally these figures were given out at local fun fairs, seaside resorts as souvenirs and general gifts. Still today though the better examples such as this one aren't easy to find. FREE UK MAINLAND DELIVERY
