Description

Very attractive & untouched kitchen dining set removed from country cottage comprising a Pembroke style pine table with set of four elm seat & pine kitchen Windsor chairs. All in matching dark stain with used antique appearance. The lathback windsor chairs are of a quality type with double stretcher rails, the table with turned legs has drop flaps & a single drawer. This set is ideal for some refurbishment in present form or stripping/painting, they are untouched by us. Alternatively they would look great for a period cottage setting or cafe or other decorative situation. As shown in the photographs this is a genuine antique item with age related condition, knocks & marks. Measurements given below are for the table when fully extended, with the flaps folded down the table is 102cm x 51cm & 72.5cm tall.
