Description

For your consideration is this superbly stylish and rare 1930s Art Deco wall clock. The case is absolutely stunning with heavily figured honey coloured veneers to the case body with Macassar ebony banding around the edges. Simple raised chrome numerals and hands will appeal to those who like the more modernist side of Deco. Below is a chrome framed windowed door revealing the chrome pendulum. We've had the whole case fully restored and so comes to you in superb condition. Likewise the movement which is 8 day and with a Westminster chime has been fully serviced by a qualified horologist and keeps very good time.
