Description

An attractive antique Edwardian inlaid mahogany glass display cabinet. The display cabinet has two astragal glazed doors that open to reveal three fabric lined shelves. The display cabinet has glass sides and decorative inlay and crossbanding throughout. Raised on tapering square legs with spade feet. Item Ref; M-2976 . DIMENSIONS: Height - 148cm / Width - 77cm / Depth - 34cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including some age-related marks to the wooden frame (pictured). The glass remains intact with no apparent damage or cracks. Some evidence of old historic woodworm to the back and a replacement back panel - the worm is long gone and has been fully treated as a precaution. Overall, a rather lovely example of an antique mahogany glazed display cabinet. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item
