Description

This is an antique pier cabinet. An English, walnut and boxwood inlaid display cupboard, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1870. Delightful cabinet, presenting beautifully with fine colour. Displaying a desirable aged patina throughout. Select walnut shows fine grain interest and rich caramel hues. Lighter boxwood stringing contrasts perfectly. Wide top with ebonised edges stands above the whole. Front fascia accentuated with superb scrolled foliate marquetry. Bright glazed door dressed with ormolu lock escutcheon — in working order, key present. The interior upholstered with a striking saffron yellow silk cotton fabric. Arranged usefully as a pair of graduated shelves. Adorned with ormolu mounts to each corner, framing the cabinet door. Standing upon four ebonised bun feet beneath a plinth foot. This is a superb antique pier cabinet, desirably presented and ideal for showcasing treasured items. Solids joints and construction. Delivered waxed, polished and ready to display.
