Description

What better way to brighten up your dining with these very glamorous Art Deco table candelabra lamps. Originating from France and dating to the 1930s both lamps comprise two bulb holders with milk glass candle shaped shades. These are often missing if you find these lamps or damaged so this is quite a rare find. The glass is very delicate so should be placed somewhere safe. The bases are mirrored copper coloured glass with copper metal detailing. Both lamps are re-wired and ready to be enjoyed. Condition has wear consistent with age and use. Both lamps are in good condition generally, the white shades are perfect as far as I can see. The glass holders do show some signs of age with some foxing and minor mirror loss in small areas, nothing unsightly or distracting.
