Description

Here I have a wonderful Ormolu, bronze, and rouge marble clock. There are 2 winged cherubs sitting above the clock and some rockery with a small ewer to one side. All sitting on an ormolu and rouge marble base. The quality is outstanding and the condition is very good. You will see in the pictures the casting is of outstandingly high quality. The numerals are French porcelain. I have had the works cleaned and the clock is working perfectly. It strikes on a small bell. I date this clock around 1860/80. Any questions, please ask, I can ship worldwide just send me your address for a shipping quote. It is very heavy and will need a wooden crate for transport. It stands an impressive 23 inches tall. 17 inches wide, 7 inches deep.

Internal Ref: Cherub clock.
