Description

See full description at titanfineart.com This work formed part of the collection of family pictures and heirlooms of the ancient Scott family at Scot's Hall in Kent, the family seat for many centuries - the house was one of the most magnificent manorial residences in the county. For nearly six centuries members of this family have variously served their country with honour and repute, tracing an unbroken male descent through more than twenty generations. The family are lineal descendants of the ancient Norman family of Balliol, and can trace their descent from David le Scot, King of Scotland. Our portrait along with other family portraits were reproduced as engravings in 1876 with the permission of widow of Thomas Fairfax Best (1786-1849) who was a great-grandson of George Scott (our sitter's husband). The sitter is Cecilia Dering Scott (1682-1764), the only daughter of Sir Edward Dering third baronet and Elizabeth Cholmeley. She married George Scott (1673-1728) in 1706 and became his second wife (George's first wife, Anne Pemberton (1672-1705), died in childbirth). George was a son of Sir Thomas Scott (c.1638-c.1688). Cecilia and George had fourteen children. C...
