Description

This unusual EDWARDIAN ANTIQUE SILVER TOAST RACK was made by the well-known and sought after silversmiths of William Hutton & Sons Ltd in 1902. The rack has five delightful heart-shaped dividers resulting in four toast sections and the central divider has a shaped handle on the top. This unusual Toast Rack is in almost unused condition with very crisp hallmarks and very little sign of use or wear. With no added engravings, monograms or initials, this superb antique would look fabulous on any table or would enhance any Silver collection.
