Description

A superb example of an early 18th Century solid Sterling Silver sugar caster by renowned maker Thomas Bamford. It is an excellent quality piece with a bulbous body, round foot and pierced top with finial. It is obviously made from very good gauge silver and is incredibly heavy for its size, weighing approximately 238g. It is clearly hallmarked on the base for London, 1727 and the neck of the top is the maker's mark T.B for Thomas Bamford. It is in excellent condition for its age and has been gently cleaned and polished. There are some faint surface marks and a few minor marks but no major damages and it displays beautifully. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Tracked UK delivery £10, rest of the world £25.
