Description

A lovely revolving oak bookcase dating from the late 19th / early 20th Century. It is a particularly large size and has its original maker's plaque for Maple & Co of London. It revolves freely and stands on castors. The oak has a nice warm colour and the whole piece is in very good condition with no major damages. There are signs of age and use, some minor knocks and marks on the top and an old shrinkage split which has been filled but nothing untoward or detrimental. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
