Description

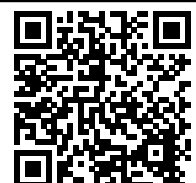

A spring loaded candle with the manufacturers mark on the base and top of the candle holder dating it to around 1891 and made by Charles R Dibben who traded from 170 Sloane St. It measures 38cm in height and the base is approximately 13cm in diameter. The lamp overall is in good condition although there are some soldering marks around the hood of the shade - see photos 6 & 7. On the weighted base are the words: DIBBEN SLOANE ST and at the top of the main column is the trade symbol with the same wording. The lamp has been lightly polished only and postage and packing is included in the price for UK mainland only. For outside areas or abroad please contact us for a delivery quote.
