This inverted breakfront has two hex shaped doors with original chrome bar handles. The whole being raised on an inset walnut plinth. The left side opens to reveal a very generously sized hanging area with a full length open shelf above, perfect spot for hats or fold away items like jumpers. The inside of the doors are very unusual both having open shelves to house smalls, perfect perhaps for smalls like jewellery, wallets etc. The far right door upon opening also has built in shelving to the door and inside the robe itself is a fabulous array of various sized banks of drawers both glazed and open. There is also two very large deep set drawers to the bottom of the robe, perfect again for fold away items. The fitted interior offers the perfect space for your clothes and accessories.
