Description

Eugen Rosenfeld, 1870 - 1940 Portrait of a German Aerobatic Champion Wilhem Stör 1893-1977 signed lower left "Eugn Rosnfeld and inscribed Flug Kaptain Wilhelm Stör" oil on canvas 144 x 107 cm. (56.3/4 x 42.1/4in.) Wilhelm "Willy" Stör was born in Witten, Germany on October 5, 1893. During WWI he was credited with 5 victories thereby making him an Ace. Throughout the 1930's he competed as a stunt pilot at national and international aerobatic competitions. During WWII he delivered two M.E.109s to Kawasaki in Japan. He died in Augsburg in 1977. In the offered lot he is shown with his plane in the background, most likely at one of many competitions in which he took first place. In the interwar period, he became aerobatic pilot, rivaling the best German of that time (Udet, Achgelis, Hagenburg ...), especially flying his Messerschmitt M-35b white and blue. As the Chief Pilot at Messerschmitt, He gave the necessary information for Rudolph Hess for his flight to Scotland in 1941. Artist Biography Rosenfeld studied from 1894 at the Munich Academy under Karl Raupp. In addition to landscapes in oil, often enriched with oriental motifs and book illustrations in the Ar...
