Description

18th century George III mahogany glazed 2 part double corner cabinet of superb original colour and patination. The cabinet consists of a cupboard base with two panelled doors with boxwood stringing. The top section has a typical mid 18th century astragal glazed door again with boxwood stringing. Original reeded mould to the centre. Nice shape cornice to the top with boxwood and ebony fancy line inlay. The inside of the top of the cabinet has several shaped shelves and has been nicely painted and grained in dark green some time ago. There is some replaced glass to the top but it is all period glass and has been well done otherwise the cabinet is in very good condition and a lovely colour. SIZE; 25" across the front. 85 1/2" high overall. 22" square. CIRCA; 1770 - 1780
