Description

Very attractive Edwardian mahogany shop fitting which has been re-structured probably in the 1990's. Most of the restoration is to the bookcase top of which only the doors are original whilst most of the top and sides have been cabinet made to a high standard. This is not unusual with shop fittings as many were fitted into alcoves etc. Overall it looks really well and could be used for many purposes. Not especially tall is most definitely a plus in today's modern houses. Splits into two pieces to help with transportation and setting up. All in good order and ready to use. Depth of Top Surface - 27cm = 10 3/4 inches
