Description

An exceptionally large and original 19th century carved giltwood mirror which retains its original mirror plate and original backboard. . Very robust and heavy, the carved frame with tied ribbon surmount and leaf carved borders, small shrinkage cracks to the elements as is usual but all are solid and robust - no loose parts or movement. In very good condition for age. . The huge piece of glass is handmade and has a lovely soft blue/grey hue and it reflects perfectly. The margins of the mirror - particularly in the far upper left margin - have some age related wear and fogging but this is attractive and part of the mirror's genuine age. . You can see this clearly in our photos and it is part of the mirror's history and charm. . A beautiful huge and heavy over mantle mirror in very good condition from a private house in Hampshire. . . Dimensions are: . 60 inches wide max and 64 inches high. . The plate is 47 inches wide and 59 inches high. . For metric please multiply by 2.5
