Description

This fine Black Forest carved limewood figure group is superbly composed and carved. It depicts a German/ Swiss bearded gentleman dressed traditionally in plus fours, jacket and a wide brimmed hat with feather plumes. He is standing in woodland with his faithful dog and is carrying an early sporting rifle with telescopic scopes. He has a pair of spotting binoculars around his neck and a canvas rucksack on his back. He is stood enjoying the moment while smoking his large traditional pipe. This delightful carving is in superb condition. It has a rich golden colour and is well patinated. On the underside, the artist has signed his initials HK and the number 04 which probably represent the year 1904
