

SA838877

A Hand-Tinted Photogravure
Picture by William Henry
Margetson R1 - The Sea Hath
Its Pearls' circa 1900

Price

Sold

Item Reference: SA838877

Date of manufacture: Victorian

Dimensions

Height = 65 cm (25.6")

Width = 65 cm (25.6")

Description

An extremely decorative early print of William Henry Margetson's famous painting of 'The Sea Hath Its Pearls'. Showing a young lady collecting shells from the beach. The original painting by Margetson was exhibited at the Royal Academy in 1897. Margetson was highly influenced by the Aesthetic Movement. The picture is beautifully framed in an open work gilt frame with a shell motif at the top. It is a large picture and measures 65cm in diameter. (Please forgive the reflections in the glass).

Internal Ref: GFX

Seller Details

Gill Coe Antiques & Interiors

Dorking Surrey United Kingdom

Tel: 07860 158 955

International Tel: 07860 158 955

