Description

This is a superb quality Georgian drum table c.1780. It is a Sheraton manner with multiple drawers around its entirety, all useable and the top rotates smoothly which is why I believe this is a form of rent table. The patina to the mahogany is complimented perfectly by the wear to the red leather top. The condition is fantastic for its age with only a few minor losses. The brass casters are original as well on the splayed base which gives this piece a very stylish look. A very special piece. Height 78cm Diameter 108cm Price includes UK mainland delivery
