Description

This wonderful late 19thC carved hard wood Venetian figural table, has a circular moulded top with a linen drape frieze upon a carved figure of a cherub, modelled arms raised upon a sphere and three leaf carved down swept supports, terminating in leaf carved feet. There is a age related crack in the body of the cherub as can be seen in the photographs but the piece has been thoroughly checked by our restorer and is totally sound and stable. A very handsome thing indeed.
