Description

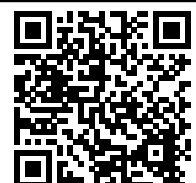

An attractive early 20th century antique oak bureau in the Jacobean style. The antique oak bureau has a shaped three-quarter gallery and a decorative fall front with geometric mouldings. The fall front opens to reveal a fitted interior with pigeonholes, a small drawer, and an inset leather writing surface. To the base are two fitted drawers with decorative brass handles. The bureau is raised on four turned legs with turned stretcher supports. Of good proportions and quality. Item Ref; M-3023 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 117cm / Width – 96cm / Depth – 48cm / Surface Height – 74cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks to the top and fall front (pictured). There appears to have been a plaque to the front which is no longer present. The antique oak bureau remains structurally solid and sound. A good example of an early 20th century antique oak bureau.
