Description

A lovely oak refectory table with planked overhanging top and turned gun barrel legs joined by square stretchers standing on small bun feet. The base is constructed from 18th Century timbers but the table has been repurposed at some point, having more than likely started life as a different size or shape. Nonetheless it is a beautiful table and makes a great centre table or console table. It is in excellent condition with a lovely rich patina and is strong and sturdy. There are signs of age and use, some surface marks and light knocks but no major damages or anything detrimental and it displays well. It has been cleaned and given a light polish and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers. Please get in touch for an accurate quote to your location.
