Description

An attractive George III oak dresser base and rack of unusual form with ogee profile slat end supports. The rack has two shelves with later frieze decoration and backboards. The racks sits above the solid oak base which has three fielded drawers with later brass handles, all above a lower shelf flanked by slat end supports. The right foot has more wear than the left (please see photographs) but generally the dresser remains in a very good condition overall. The oak is full of character and has a wonderful colour throughout. Dimensions:- Length: 164.5cm Depth: 40cm Height: 186cm DELIVERY We use trusted couriers for UK and international delivery.
