Description

An attractive Georgian oak writing bureau. It has a fall front that reveals an impressive, fitted interior. There are several drawers and pigeonholes around a small central cupboard. There are also some 'secret' drawers and a well. The fall front is supported by two draw leaf arms that each have a small brass knob. The base consists of three small fitted dummy drawers (to accommodate the well) and an arrangement of three short drawers over two longer drawers and a single long drawer to the base. Raised on decorative bracket feet with later added castors. Item Ref; M-2419 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 110cm / Width – 140.5cm / Depth – 56cm / Surface Height - 80cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places, including some age-related marks and ink staining to the top, fall front, drawers, and also writing surface inside. Of good construction with the drawers running smoothly. Honest repair made to the top where the lock plate sits (pictured). No keys present. Some replacement boards to the back. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us i...
