Description

A particularly attractive set of three 19th century antique elm and fruitwood chairs. The antique chairs each have a decorative turned top rail with two bar back rests below. The chairs have solid elm seats with wonderful grain pattern. The chairs are raised on four turned legs with straight H stretcher supports. A good set of three antique chairs with good, rich colour throughout. Item Ref; M-3030 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 84cm / Width – 42cm / Depth – 47cm / Seat Height – 43cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks and staining to the seats (pictured). The chairs all remain structurally solid and sturdy with good tight joints. Some evidence of old historic wood worm in places – this is long gone and has been fully treated as a precaution. Finished with a fresh coat of natural wax. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item. .
