Description

Very unusual Arts & Crafts movement wrought iron hanging light c.1910. A single bulb hanging inside a 17" diameter ring with superb decoration of curving branches with heart shaped leaves and spiral tendrils. Note the hammered surface to the frame. Hung from an interesting arrangement of bars (also hammered) and rings below the original matching ceiling fitting. Very good condition with the original gold paint work, worn in places. Cleaned and rewired, ready to hang. Dimensions: Height 32", Diameter 17".
