Description

This is a fantastic quality Victorian walnut wardrobe with 3 paneled doors, each door has arched panels. The pediment has a nice carved top edge, all the brass fittings are original and in good condition. The side doors open up to garment-hanging areas, with a draw in the base. The center door opens to reveal 3 drawers with brass handles, and 2 slides, and a single shelf. The condition is wonderful in its original polish, and is such a lovely rich colour. This is Victorian walnut at its best, a wonderful craftsmanship-made piece of furniture. Circa 1860/70.
