Description

For your consideration is this very high quality Art Deco blonde burr maple triple three door wardrobe . Made in the 1930's this beautiful wardrobe exudes quality and style and offers a very generous amount of internal storage. The left side has full hanging space. The centre section opens to reveal a bank of open shelving, glazed pull out drawers, a couple of very deep drawers too, perfect for jumpers etc. The beautiful blonde colouring so easily integrates with both modern and period settings. Book paged and quarter veneers in a rare ribbon shape which contrasts beautifully with the large statement ebonised handles. The large radius round shoulders gives a real sense of grandeur and opulence. The plinth is also very stylish being very deep set and stepped. The whole robe exudes quality, with original internal fittings such as chrome rails, hinges etc. This wardrobe has been through our workshops and has been fully restored and so comes to you in excellent condition. All doors and drawers open smoothly. No musky smells, old worm or chips of veneer or splits in the wood. Very sturdy and heavy piece in beautiful condition, this gorgeous wardrobe certainly won't disappoint...
