Description

Fabulous 18th Century Oak Moon Phase Longcase Clock, Circa 1790 by Walbrough & Thomas of Bristol. The Walbrough family are recorded as working in the last half of the 18th Century until the mid 19th Century & were known to have collaborated with several other makers. This handsome longcase clock has an eight day, four pillar movement striking the hour on a bell. It has a seconds dial & date calendar as well as tide dial for High Water at Bristol Key. Lovely slim oak case made from quarter sawn oak with highly figured medullary rays & with mahogany banding, original lock to the trunk door. Swan neck pediment to the hood with original paterae & finials, corinthian columns & original spandrels to the dial. Case in excellent condition & movement in good working order. We are pleased to discuss our clocks in detail and will advise you on setting up, winding and regulating. Dimensions: Width 19 3/4" (50.2cm) at Pediment Height 84 1/2" (214.6cm) Depth 9 3/4" (24.7cm) at Hood Depth 9" (22.9cm) at Base
