Description

A very stylish and distinctive looking English 1930s Art Deco two-tone semi circular cabinet. The top section is veneered in a lovely blonde bird's-eye maple and the lower section is veneered in lightly figured walnut. A central column of glass rods runs centrally from the top to the bottom of the cabinet, this added with the very striking and distinctive veneers really sets this cabinet aside from the rest. The doors have a silvered decoration to the inside glass which is in good condition and original to the cabinet (we can remove the silvering if desired). The interior backing is silk lined in a beige in colour and original to the cabinet, it does show some signs of age and use but nothing unsightly. The generous sized interior has three shelves. In lovely condition having been fully restored. Comes with its original working key. Free UK mainland delivery.
