Description

Very high quality, collectible 1930s Art Deco Czech decanter set by Karl Palda. Features large crystal decanter with six shot glasses, hand blown crystal with diamond polished edges. The set is both enamelled and engraved with beautiful detailing and colouring. the decanter is much taller than most decanters and the quality can't be seen throughout. Condition is very good there are two flaws to note a nibble on the bottom of the stopper and a bruise on the edge of one glass. For 90 odd years of age we think it's in great condition and a real asset to any Deco barware collection .
