Description

A large mid Victorian pine farmhouse dresser, stripped to the bare wood ready for waxing or painting. It has a very attractive cornice top and arched panelled cupboard doors - four cupboards in total, each with a single shelf inside. Between the two cupboards, in the top section, are two open display shelves followed by a further full width shelf above the work surface. Between the cupboards in the base are three drawers, one on top of the other, each with the original pull handles. Each cupboard has the original brass knobs. The dresser stands on the original tall bun feet. It is in very good, clean solid condition throughout. The top separates from the base for delivery and access. Can be purchased in the bare wood for £950 or wax polished for £1,100. Height 83", Base Height 34", Width 60", Depth 19"
