Description

This is an exceptional chamfer-top table clock in superb condition. The five knopped pillar, eight day duration, double gut fusee movement with Anchor Recoil escapement, rack striking the hours on a top-mounted bell, shouldered plates and the backplate having floral edge engraving which is perfectly followed on across the backcock and fixing brackets. Also having an engraved pendulum bob and repeat pull facility for the strike. Behind an eight inch diameter, bowed painted iron dial with black Roman numerals, minute ring and matching 'open moon' blued steel hands. Behind a cast brass locking bezel with bowed glass. Contained in a figured mahogany case of good colour, patina and proportions. The gadrooned chamfer top bears a cast brass pineapple finial upon a thin platform, the case front having four recessed triangular panels that are inlaid with brass with quadrant brass and ebony strung framing and positioned around the dial. Also, brass lined canted front edges and an inlaid frieze above the lower gadrooned moulding. The sides having ringed carrying handles with floral paterae above gold-silk backed rectangular brass, fish-scale sound frets. The plinth being lined wi...
