Description

A superb Edwardian period flame mahogany triple pillar dining table. In the George III style and very well constructed in solid mahogany with attractive flame mahogany veneers. The top and legs have inlaid banding in rosewood. Consisting of 3 pedestals with detachable tops and 2 additional leaves. The two end pedestals are tri-form and the central pedestal is quatra-form. The elegant splayed legs terminate in their original solid brass lions paw caps and castors. We have had this table professionally repolished to a very high standard, it is now offered for sale in excellent condition, with a rich depth of colour, ready to go straight into the home. We have photographed the table with a set of 10 chairs around it but it could easily accommodate 12. Dimensions: Length 330cms Width 115cms Height 75cms
