Description

A charming and interesting child's toy miniature dinner service. The set bears the 'Indian Stone China' impressed mark of Charles Meigh and sons a Staffordshire pottery making stone china similar to Masons. The set is quite large with tureens and meat plates etc. The condition overall is very good, there is the odd chip, glaze crazing and hairline crack but very few. This is a rare early and extensive set of its type and I have not seen one by this maker in this stone china body. C.1850. Size in inches of large tureen for scale: 5 1/2 wide 4 deep 4 high
