Description

For your consideration is this superbly stylish original Art Deco 1930's desk of great proportions offering a real sense of grandeur. The base wood is solid and is veneered in book paged Walnut and raised on a Macassar ebony protruding plinth which gives a warm honey overall tone with beautiful figuring throughout. This desk can sit centre stage, it's front has open adjustable shelving for books or ornaments. One of the rear cupboards houses a bank of sliding internal drawers, the other is open shelving. All locks are functional and comes with one original key. Solid brass long strip hinges. The attention to detail is superb from the timbers to the craftsmanship. Not only does this desk look amazing but it's perfect for work space which is being generous on both the work top space area but also internal storage. In showroom condition and fully restored. This piece comes apart in sections for ease of transport. Offered with FREE UK TWO MAN MAINLAND DELIVERY
