Description

This is a very attractive 19th century English country house open armchair. It has tall ebonised legs that have traces of the original brass beading which tells me this armchair dates to the Aesthetic movement c.1870. The shape of the chair is superb and is very different to others I have had over the years. Generous size and very comfortable. Height 82cm Width 69cm Depth 93cm Depth of seat 60cm Height of seat 43cm (On my website) If you would like this armchair upholstered please click yes in the upholstery drop down menu. This would require 3 metres of material. You can supply your own or please browse our collections under the material section. All my antique armchairs have been fully restored, springs, legs, padding etc so these will stand the test of time even if used everyday. Price includes UK mainland delivery
